

TERMS OF REFERENCE (TOR) MENA League Simulation 2024/2025

Overview:

The "Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom is pleased to announce the Call for Proposals for the "MENA League Simulation" project, aimed at simulating the Arab League summit. This initiative will involve participants from Jordan, Lebanon, Iraq, Morocco, and Tunisia, and will take place in 2024/2025. Our goal is to enhance understanding of the Arab League's protocols and operations.

The submission deadline for applications: 27.10.2024

Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom (FNF)

The "Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom" (FNF) proudly looks back on a long history of changes and challenges. From its establishment until now, the foundation grew constantly and became a globally operating institution. In April 2007, the foundation's name was extended to "for Freedom" to underline the new concept of "Marketing for Freedom" worldwide. Today, the label "for Freedom" is widely associated with successful projects.

Based on liberalism, the underlying principle of the foundation's political activity, FNF is engaged in political education in both Germany and abroad. With our activities and publications, we help people to exercise their rights to political participation. We also provide scholarships for talented individuals. Our headquarters is located in the city of Potsdam and we maintain offices all over Germany together with project offices in over 60 countries worldwide. The Friedrich Naumann Foundation is an open laboratory of freedom and a global liberal think-tank. With over 200 employees, the Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom is the biggest liberal institution worldwide with a comprehensive network of partners, experts, and volunteers.

Our Vision:

The Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom is a creative platform for innovation that intends to enhance the values and goals of liberalism worldwide.

Our Mission:

Our activities target individuals who share our core principles of liberalism. We advise, motivate, and inspire relevant stakeholders and create shape, and market solutions for tomorrow that are based on enhancing individual freedom and responsibility. We are the creative think-tank of liberal politics in Jordan and the MENA region.

Project Objectives:

The MENA League Simulation aims to:

1. Provide in-depth workshops on protocols, diplomacy, management, writing and reporting, in addition to key issues relevant to the Arab League.
2. Conduct simulations for interior ministries and foreign ministers, culminating in a summit that mirrors actual Arab League processes.

Who Should Apply?

- We invite qualified organizations and companies with relevant experience, to submit their proposals.

Application Requirements:

Proposals must include the following components:

1. Preparation Phase (2024):
  - A full concept note and detailed project guideline. This should cover all aspects of the project.
  - Comprehensive materials for the above mentioned workshops.
2. Implementation Phase (2025):
  - Confirmation of availability to implement the project in 2025, based on the preparation framework.

Submission Details:

- A timeline outlining the number of working days needed for finishing and submitting the preparation phase requirements that mentioned above.

Here's another option:

- A financial proposal (quotation offer) needed for delivering the required components of the first phase (preparation phase)

Languages:

- Proposals may be submitted in either English or Arabic.

Deadline:

- All applications must be received by Sunday, October 27, 2024.

How to Submit:

Please send your proposals in PDF format, along with your CV or bio, to:

- Ayah Majali: ayah.majali@freiheit.org
- Yasmeen Alnajdawi: yasmeen.alnajdawi@freiheit.org

We look forward to your innovative proposals and to collaborating on an impactful and educational simulation of the Arab League Summit. Thank you for your interest!